

David B. Case, AIA, ICAA
Partner, Stansel & Case Architects

Work Experience

Stansel & Case Architects	Architect/ Partner	Jacksonville, Florida	2018-Current
Richard Skinner & Associates, Architects	Architect/Principal Architect	Jacksonville, Florida	1997 – 2018

Specializing in high-end Traditional Single Family Residential, Educational, Ecclesiastic, and Fine Arts facilities.

Education

University of Miami	Bachelor of Architecture, 1979, 5 year Professional Degree
Institute of Classical Architecture & Classical America	Certificate in Classical Architecture, 2003
Institute of Classical Architecture & Classical America	Certificate in Traditional Residential Design, 2005

Licenses

Registered Architect – Florida (AR0009061)

Professional and Civic Associations

Institute of Classical Architecture & Art – Past President, Florida Chapter
Jacksonville Historic Preservation Commission – two time Commission Chairman
Florida State College of Jacksonville Interior design Advisory Board – Member
Coral Gables Board of Architects – Former Chairman/Member
University of Miami Alumni Association – Past National President
University of Miami Board of Trustees – Ex-Officio Member
University of Miami Architectural Alumni Association – Past President

Awards

Institute of Classical Architecture & Classical America Award of merit, 2005
Institute of Classical Architecture & Art – Florida Chapter, Addison Mizner Medal - Pedagogy

In Association with Richard Skinner & Associates, Architects

Institute of Classical Architecture & Art – Florida Chapter, Addison Mizner Medal 2014 – Residential
Riverside Avondale Preservation – Outstanding Site Improvements, Cummer Museum of Art & Gardens, 2014
Riverside Avondale Preservation - Outstanding Historically Compatible New Construction, Baker residence, 2013
Jacksonville Historic Preservation Commission Award – Outstanding Historically Compatible New Construction
Baker Residence, 2013
Jacksonville Historic Preservation Commission Award – Outstanding Historically Compatible New Construction
Davis Residence, 2014
Jacksonville Historic Preservation Commission Award – Outstanding Historically Compatible New Construction
Stein Residence, 2015